The Church celebrates the Assumption of Mary into heavenly glory each year on August 15th. This year the 15th falls on a Monday. Usually, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is celebrated as a Holy Day of Obligation, however because of its proximity to Sunday, the bishops have determined not to oblige the faithful to attend Mass that day. However, this feast to Mary is still a Solemnity or a high feast; it is still therefore a Holy Day and a day on which every joyful Catholic looks forward to attending Holy Mass. We will have Mass to celebrate this feast on Monday at 8:00AM.

Pope Francis' Apostolic Exhortation on The Joy of Love - Amoris Laetitia: On Love in the Family

Chapter Eight: "Guiding, discerning and integrating weakness"

The eighth chapter is an invitation to mercy and pastoral discernment in situations that do not fully match what the Lord proposes. This Pope uses three very important verbs: guiding, discerning and integrating, which are fundamental in addressing fragile, complex or irregular situations. The Chapter has sections on the need for gradualness in pastoral care; the importance of discernment; norms and mitigating circumstances in pastoral discernment; and finally what the Pope calls the 'logic of pastoral mercy'.

Chapter eight is very sensitive. In reading it one must remember that the Church's task is often like that of a field hospital. Here the Holy Father grapples with the findings of the Synods on controversial issues. He reaffirms what Christian marriage is and adds that 'some forms of union radically contradict this ideal, while others realize it in at least a partial and analogous way'. The Church therefore 'does not disregard the constructive elements in those situations which do not yet or no longer correspond to her teaching on marriage'.

The overall sense of the chapter and of the spirit that Pope Francis wishes to impart to the pastoral work of the Church is well summed up in the closing words: "I encourage the faithful who find themselves in complicated situation to speak confidently with their pastors or with other lay people whose lives are committed to the Lord. They may not always encounter in them a confirmation of their own ideas or desires but they will surely receive some light to help them better understand their situation and discover a path to personal growth. I also encourage the Church's pastors to listen to them with sensitivity and serenity, with a sincere desire to understand their plight and their point of view, in order to help them live better lives and to recognize their proper place in the Church.

On the "logic of pastoral mercy", Pope Francis emphasizes: At times we find it hard to make room for God's unconditional love in our pastoral activity. We put so many conditions on mercy that we empty it of its concrete meaning and real significance. That is the worst way of watering down the Gospel.
